Background

- Bella Stone Supplies is a subsidiary of the Bella Stone Network. Established as there was a need for support within the network for affordable and quality office supplies and equipment. Bella Stone Supplies then found an opportunity to supply outside the network to the larger public market.
- The company entrenched itself in the stationery market in which we are successful due to various factors namely, prompt delivery of quality goods, the diligence of management and sheer determination of the workforce.
- The current team, working together with Bella Stone Network has taken the company to new heights.
